

Just for fun

LIED TO (with pictures)

Or, How to tell if you're being

photo manipulation techniques

of dastardly

Little Book

Batfort's

So the next time you're looking at social media or reading the news, take a minute to think about the photos.

*What story is being told?
*What is being covered up?

Perception

Reality

It's not cool to be manipulated, even for fun. But now you know. Seek the truth + you will find it

Batfort.com

Credits and a digital download at Batfort.com/zine

Literally rewriting history. Photo editing can even completely erase someone.

Learn more about why Stalin had Nikoia Yezhov removed from the official photographic record at <https://www.history.com/news/osef-stalin-great-purge-photo-retouching>

Photo manipulation can cue us to fear someone... or like them.

The heartthrob

Darker skin is "scary"

TRAIL OF BLOOD

TIME

Newsweek

Which selfie do you choose? The one that makes you look the best, of course. But what if you were to pick a selfie for someone you hate?

(You might be tempted to choose the WORST pic.)

We all know that magazines airbrush actresses and models. The truth is photo editing is everywhere, all the time.

Sometimes photo editing is fun

Like this idyllic mood created through strategic cropping.

Other times, editing has real consequences—like shaping your political perspective.

Media's Preferred Angle Reality

Media's Preferred Angle Reality

Media's Preferred Angle Reality

(Remember Hillary's 98% chance of winning?)